Please use the following language to promote the AIM Immunization Champion Award in your newsletters and written communications:

The Immunization Champion Award recognizes individuals who are doing an exemplary job or going above and beyond to promote or foster immunizations in their communities for children and adults. When nominating and selecting their Champion, immunization programs will base their nominations on candidates meeting one or more of the following criteria: leadership, collaboration, innovation, and advocacy. Visit the AIM website to learn more about the Immunization Champion Award and stay up-to-date with announcements. If you have any questions, please email champions@immunizationmanagers.org.
