The Natalie J. Smith, MD Award for Excellence in Immunization Program Management 2024 Submission Form

The Natalie J. Smith, MD Award winner is a current or recently retired (retired January 2020 or later) immunization program manager. This award is the highest form of recognition for immunization program managers. It recognizes the contributions of an immunization program manager who has demonstrated the high ideals, innovation, and commitment to excellence in immunization practices that characterized Dr. Smith's career. The award recognizes accomplishments and visionary leadership that have had a significant impact on achieving city, state, territory, and/or national vaccine-preventable disease goals. Additional awards information can be found here.
