“The data provided by the state of CT is key in this process – and essential in identifying our benchmark placement among organizations. Involvement and collaboration in this program ensures thoughtful and realistic enhancement are focused on in ensuring the best care and outcomes are provided to the patients and their families. These enhancements will provide essential tools to our providers and clinicians to assist in situations where vaccine hesitancy occurs.” – Participant of IQIP at a CT Birthing Hospital, August 2026